

ALGONQUIN PARK 3-DAY LODGE ADVENTURE

3-day Algonquin trip featuring interpretative hikes, guided canoeing excursions & wildlife interpretation

Explore Algonquin Park's northwest corner and howl for wolves, hike to scenic lookouts, and dip your paddle into the fresh water of Surprise Lake. Finish each day relaxing on the dock, in the sauna or in front of the fireplace. On top of the accommodation and tasty home cooked meals, this 3-day log cabin adventure features unique guided excursions by canoe and on foot.

SAMPLE ITINERARY

DAY 1

Rendezvous for lunch at the Algonquin Log Cabin at the northwest corner of Algonquin Park. Learn to paddle a canoe followed by a hike of Kitchie Island. Choose to return to the Log Cabin to relax or continue your adventure by paddling to Otter Bay for an introduction to the boreal forest, beaver ponds, and the Canadian Shield. Wind down the afternoon with a cool drink on the sundeck, dip in the lake, or unwind in the sauna.

Feast on a Canadian dinner followed by a night paddle in a 26 foot Voyageur Canoe focusing on the sounds of Algonquin.

DAY 2

Morning hike to Lookout Bluff with a spectacular view overlooking the lakes of Algonquin. Return for lunch back at the Log Cabin and spend the afternoon relaxing, exploring Surprise Lake by canoe, swimming, fishing, or reading a book on the porch. Or, make your own Canadian memory out of materials surrounding the Log Cabin. Late afternoon paddle to a scenic campfire point for sunset, bonfire and cook out dinner. After dinner, learn about the northern sky as you paddle under the stars towards the Log Cabin.

DAY 3

Rise and shine for an amazing sunrise paddle through the morning mist. Search for moose or beaver lodges and take advantage of spectacular photography opportunities. Relax with a cook out maple syrup breakfast and then return to Lodge for Canadian BBQ lunch, swim and sauna.

Depart by 4pm and arrive in downtown Toronto at 7:30pm.

May through October - Monday to Wednesday & Friday to Sunday

Package includes: 2 nights rustic Log Cabin accommodation, all meals, all equipment, canoeing, hiking, wildlife interpretation, and the services of a wilderness guide.

“If you want comfort and adventure in the wilderness, the Algonquin Log Cabin offers both in spades.” - The Globe & Mail

Adventure begins where the road ends! Located on Surprise Lake 8km from Algonquin Access Point #1 and 30 minutes from the any major roads, the Algonquin Log Cabin is the ultimate wilderness retreat. Unlike the Park’s highway 60 corridor - the only way into Algonquin from this corner is by foot or canoe. Translation – less people! Located off the grid, the Algonquin Log Cabin does not have electricity, increasing its cozy and unique character.

Dip your paddle in the fresh water, hike the less traveled trails, listen to the uninterrupted sounds of Algonquin, and relax in the comfort of this unique lodge.

Designed with comfort in mind the Algonquin Log Cabin features:

- six double occupancy bedrooms
- two washrooms
- sunken living room with 36 foot stone fireplace
- dining room with harvest table
- kitchen where the magic happens
- library
- mudroom for storing gear and packs
- front and back porch for relaxing

Just steps from the main cabin is the shower and sauna cabin allowing you to relax after a day of exploration.

Getting here: Voyageur Quest is a 3.5 hour drive from Toronto.

No car? No problem!
