

ALGONQUIN PARK - 7 DAY CANOE TRIP "September Encore"

Paddle this iconic lake loop in northwestern Algonquin Park

Our seven-day, six-night Algonquin canoe trip travels a classic lake loop in the northwest corner of Algonquin Park. The trip moves at a relaxed pace with a focus on wildlife viewing, nature interpretation, and backcountry exploration.

Sample Itinerary

Rendez-vous for lunch at Voyageur Quest Outfitting, located at Algonquin Park Access Point #1. Meet your guide and group members, and prepare for the journey ahead. Launch your canoes for your week-long adventure in Algonquin's wilderness.

Learn (or refresh) your paddling and portaging skills while keeping your eyes peeled for moose, great blue heron, loon, and beaver. Explore the waterways of North Tea, Biggar, and Manitou Lakes. For seven days you'll paddle the clean, fresh water, dine on gourmet backcountry meals cooked over the fire, and sleep under the stars at stunning wilderness campsites.

The journey comes to a close when you make your way back to Kawawaymog Lake for a farewell lunch before parting ways.

The above itinerary is an example - the exact program is tailored by our guides to the preferences of the group and weather conditions.

The package includes: 6 nights camping accommodation, all meals, all equipment, park permits, canoeing, hiking, wildlife interpretation, and the services of a wilderness canoe guide.

HOW MUCH EXPERIENCE DO YOU NEED?

Participants on this trip should be comfortable camping in the wilderness, although canoe experience is not a prerequisite. You will be encouraged to participate in all aspects of the trip, including: paddling and portaging, camping comfortably, preparing creative and delicious meals, and learning about the natural world and the enjoyment of living in the outdoors.

CAMPING IN ALGONQUIN PARK

Practice "no-trace camping" at campsites that are selected for their location and scenic views.

Tents (2, 3 and 4-person) are organized according to your group size.

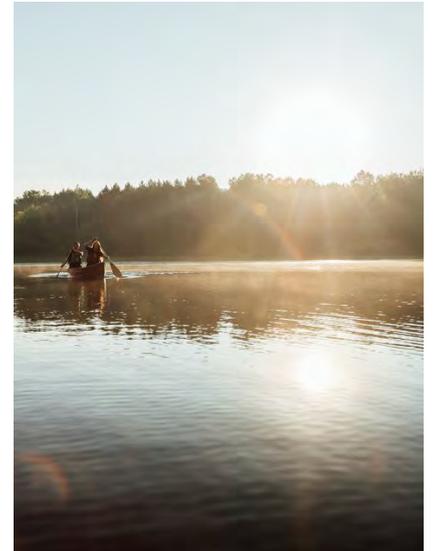

Add extra comfort with a sleeping bag and air mattress rental.

Feast on gourmet backcountry meals incorporating fresh, local ingredients.

Dietary requirements? No problem. Let us know and we'll take care of the details.

A WORD ABOUT YOUR GUIDES

Voyageur Quest guides are skilled outdoorsmen & women. On top of being well-versed in the natural and cultural history of northern Ontario, guides are selected for their love of the people and the land. All Voyageur Quest guides are qualified canoe professionals, certified in water safety, and trained in wilderness first aid.

No car? No problem!

Relax and enjoy round trip transportation from downtown Toronto. Travel between Toronto and Voyageur Quest is by van or coach shuttle. Add it to your Algonquin package for an additional cost.
